Dream Big! The 2008 Mohawk i-Tonies.

The Mohawk i-Tonie Awards competition is open to projects printed on any one of Mohawk's i-Tone paper grades on an HP Indigo press. Work produced between January and December 2008 is eligible including, but not limited to, direct mail pieces, books, letterhead, brochures, etc. A distinguished jury – Frank Romano, Bill Garo, Todd Kalagher, and Brett Traylor – will convene to review entries. Judges will look for projects that exhibit intelligence, virtuosity, maximization of HP Indigo capabilities, and excellence in production. A Best of Show winner will be chosen from all the entries, and the jury will acknowledge distinctive work with an Honorable Mention. The Best of Show winner will receive $1,000. Honorable mentions will receive $250 each.

To enter, fill out this form and submit 5 copies of each entry. All entries must be originals. Ten additional copies will be required of each piece selected as a winner or honorable mention. Do not mount, stapled fold or mark samples. Mohawk cannot return submitted items.

The Mohawk i-Tonie Awards are open to projects printed primarily on any one of Mohawk's i-Tone papers on any HP Indigo press. Multiple-piece projects, such as identities or marketing campaigns, should be submitted as one entry. Work designed for Mohawk Fine Papers is not eligible. Submission constitutes permission to use winning entries in a traveling exhibit, on Mohawk's website, in trade journal ads and in a printed promotion.
